

Braille that Flows

The Orbit Flow 40 is a compact 40-cell braille display designed for computer and smartphone users who want a smooth and responsive braille reading experience. With high-quality piezo braille cells, ergonomic thumb keys for navigation, and instant USB plug-and-play operation, it delivers comfortable braille access for work, study, and everyday use.

Smooth Braille Reading

- 40 cell piezo braille display with cursor routing keys
- Designed for comfortable extended braille reading
- Fast refresh for smooth navigation through text

Simple, Efficient Navigation

- Ergonomic thumb keys for natural braille panning
- Six configurable keys for panning and screen reader commands
- Designed for intuitive everyday use

Instant Connectivity

- USB-C connection for computers and smartphones
- Works instantly with popular screen readers on Windows, macOS, iOS, Android, Chrome OS, and Linux
- Plug-and-play operation with no drivers required

Compact and Elegant

- Compact, lightweight design for home, work, and travel
 - 30.0 x 7.7 x 2.0 cm, 300 g
 - 11.8 x 3.0 x 0.8 inch, 0.66 lb.
- Precision metal construction for durability
- Brushed aluminum finish

888-606-7248
info@orbitresearch.com
www.orbitresearch.com

